Times & Seasons of 72

Each day begins. . .

Reflecting. . .
the experiences of the past

The moments slipping by. . .

Barely noticed,

but long will be remembered

With beauty and precisión prevailing admist the changing times.

Although hindered by disorder which has led to confusion.

A legacy of cherished thoughts

As we face the Times and Seasons of tomorrow.

You'll see memories blooming everywhere and every one will be a bright reminder of long ago pleasures and far away places.

Organizations

Starting off the second great year of Outing Club, Mr. Tom Cline gave students opportunities to do things when they wouldn't be able to otherwise. Almost every week the members had planned some kind of outing. The highlights of the year were two ski trips to McCall, Idaho, but the members also went bicycling, canoeing, and on various campouts. In the spring they held a major trip.

The Outing Club was unique among clubs at L.C. in that it had no officers, as the members believed that none were necessary. Outing Club members consist only of juniors and seniors.

Under the new instruction of Mr. Agost, the Archery Club practiced shooting twice a month in the Girls' Gym. At the beginning of the year, the club saw several films about archery. They later went to an archery shop to see how bow strings are made.

Officers for the fall semester were Debbie Blashill, president; Barb Mason, vice-president and Dave Self, secretary-treasurer. Spring semester officers were Tim Mason, president and Dave Self, vice-president.

Working to increase their chess ability, the chess club met with other schools in matches almost every week.

The club had twenty members and met each Wednesday and Thursday night after school.

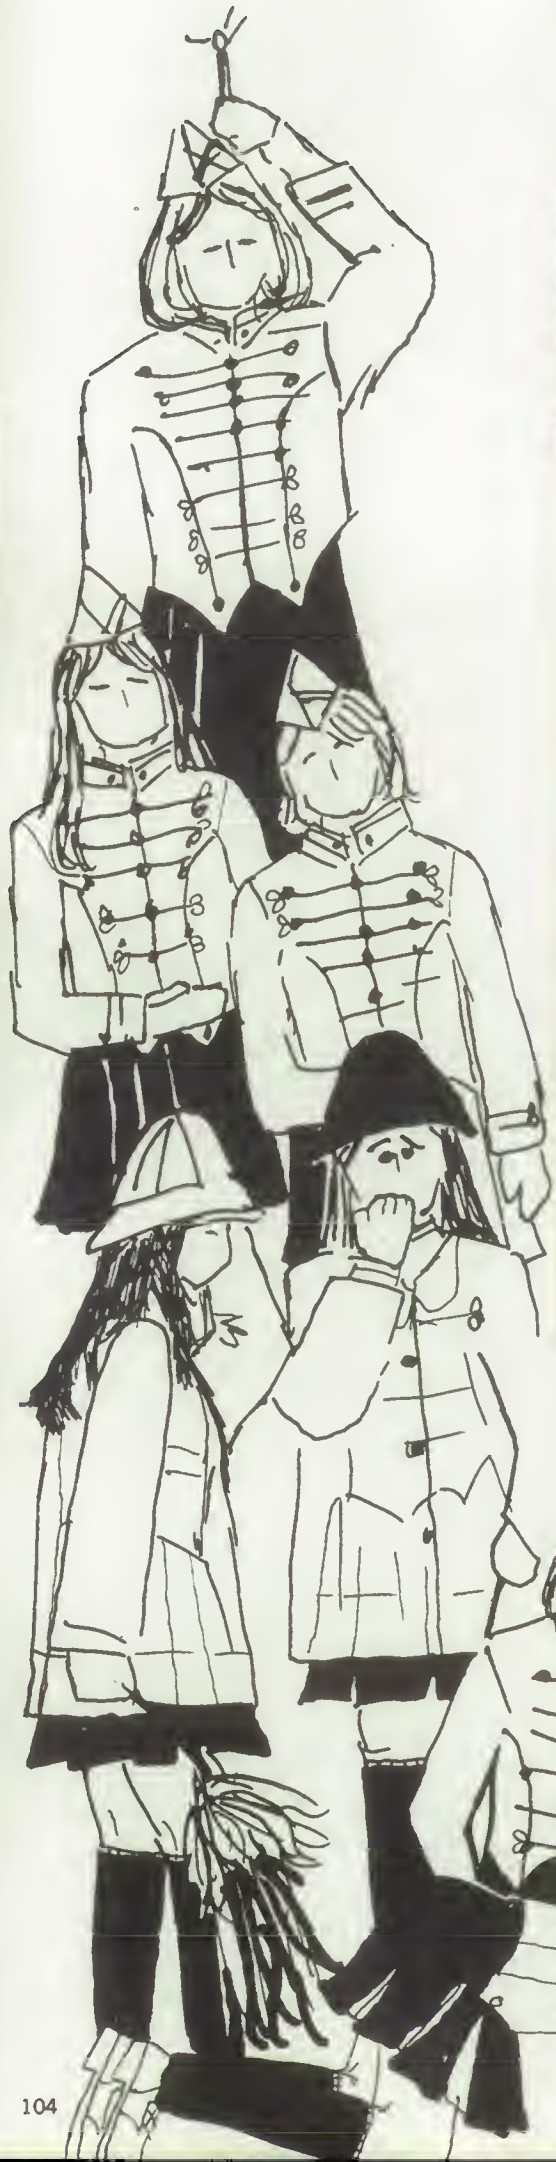

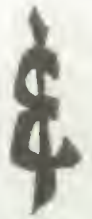

"We compared strategy to resolve an overall approach to a good game of chess," remarked club president, Dave Soejima.

Other officers for the fall semester included Les Cavanaugh, vice-president; Ed Korpela, treasurer; and Ray Milton, secretary.

In the land of Meriweather and William (M&W) there lived ninety zealous maidens who cheered thirty-nine faithful knights to victory every Friday on the field of Albi in the fall of 1971. Halfway through these games, while the brave heroes rested, the fair maidens carried lighted torches on the field to entertain the spectators. The damsels honored their M & W knights by throwing a ball called "The Goal Post Gallop".

At Christmas the maidens gave gifts to the people at Eastern State Hospital. During the winter they cheered their basketball champions in the Coliseum and at every court where they played. As the new year began these fair ladies were busy preparing for the great show, "the Imatuer Amatuer Hour", presented to all of Meriweather and William.

In the spring of 1972, the maidens practiced for their host spot in the Grand Lilac Parade. Later they traveled to a Dude Ranch and rode on great steeds. Baseball and track allured the damsels to cheer for their brave warriors.

At the end of May, the ladies had a great party where their new leaders were announced, accepted new members into the zealous group and the oldest members bid farewell to venture from the land of Meriweather and William.

Anyone interested in promoting Lewis and Clark spirit can join Tigerettes. Members made signs, had secret pals with the football team and an annual banquet was planned to honor the track and football teams. Tigerettes also put on the Basketball Bounce, under the direction of its two advisors, Miss Martin and Miss Berend.

Not all projects had to do with the school however. Sledding and slumber parties and spring picnics added fun to the club, and caroling provided money for the Christmas Fund.

Front row: Debbie Day, Laura Wintersteen, Sharon Ward, Darlene Aman, Diane Powell, Dona DeRose, Anita Townsend, Joan Favre. The Lewis and Clark Lettermen's Club consists of approximately 45 members, who work on various committees and projects in the school. In the fall, many lettermen worked on the KJRB Dating Game Con and the KJRB Faculty Basketball Game, along with selling Tiger Pride stocking caps.

This year, Lettermen voted on having only one banquet which will be an annual event involving fathers and sons. Fall officers for the club were Jamie Greene, president; Dan Ott, vice-president; Bob Guthrie, secretary-treasurer; and Andy Gilmore, sergeant-at-arms.

Quick, pass the bottle Mr. Miller will never find us up here.

Key Club

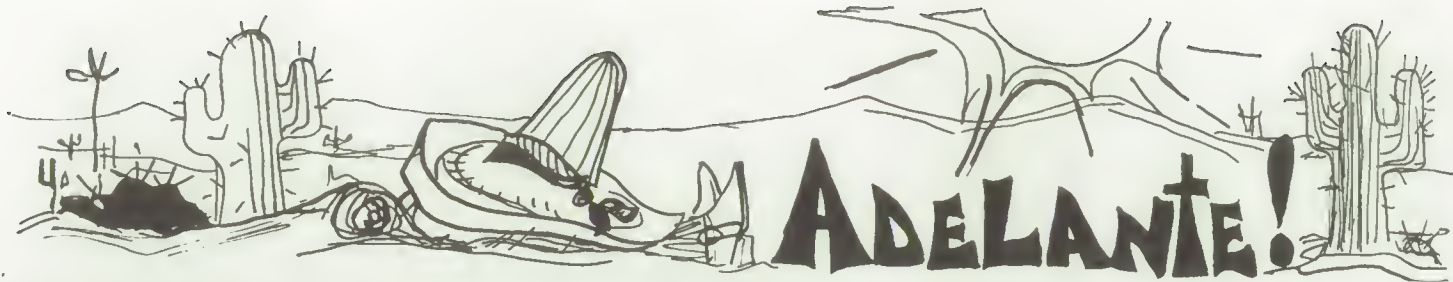

Key Club, Lewis and Clark Kiwanis sponsored organization, involves itself in many charity and service activities.

This year the Key Club, under fall President Jamie Greene, assisted in such projects as delivering Kiwanis apples, selling mistletoe, and collecting for the Larry Harmon Memorial Fund.

The club has approximately 35 members, with new applicants selected in the fall and spring. Major activities this spring have been the annual Car Wash and the Key Club regional convention in California.

This is Spanish, but let me tell you about the facts of life . . .

With a girl-boy ratio of 5:1, Adelante offers many new experiences for the love-lorn Spanish students. Adelante's membership of 30 rushed around the halls of LC this year selling Mrs. Leland's Pollywogs. The money earned from this project was used to have a banquet in the spring at the Copa de Oro. "In Adelante we have done everything possible to inform the members about the Spanish culture by means of talks, slides and guest speakers," expressed Mr. Wesley Read, club advisor.

Fall and spring officers were respectively, president, Vickie Snow and Craig Lenhart; vice-president, Craig Lenhart and Leslie Lynch; secretary, Lynn DuPree and Lorie Caskey, treasurer, Anne White and Kathy Brown; historian, Carolyn Close and Barb Hayes; and Teresa Van de Ven was sgt.-at-arms.

Julia Childs Helps Entre Nous

"To further the understanding of French for the interested in French," quoted from Michelle Wright, fall president, was the goal of Entre Nous.

The club brought in speakers from various countries with an exclusive treat at the end of the meeting.

Each semester the initiates displayed their great talent of being French gourmet cooks, taught by Julia Childs on Channel 7.

Members of Entre Nous were fun loving and had great enthusiasm for each up coming meeting, even if the ratio for girls to boys was ten to one!

Das Rheingold Slides Spark Interest

Das Rheingold was formed in 1962 to further the understanding of German culture among the language students.

This year Das Rheingold participated in various activities, including slide shows. A language dinner was planned with North Central for the spring semester.

The fall semesters officers were Dave Nelson, president; Charlene Havercroft, vice-president; Mark Gietz, secretary; and Brad Sargent, treasurer.

Japanese Club

Highlighting the Japanese Club's activities was an attempt to bring a foreign exchange student from Japan. Other functions included the Halloween-Initiation party in which new members, interested in furthering their knowledge of the Japanese culture, were initiated. To raise money for the club, the Annual Fortune Cookie Sale was held in the spring.

Classical Club

Because of their smallness, one tends to believe that Lewis and Clark's Classical Club is nonexistent. But this is not so. Though their membership may be limited, the activities in which they participate are numerous.

This year the officers tried to bring the club closer by initiating such ideas as two clothing and canned food drives, a visit to the KJRB Haunted House, and a Christmas party.

To carry out the customs and traditions of the ancient Romans, the Classical Club puts on its annual Ides of March Banquet, commemorating Caesar's death. This features Latin dress, food and entertainment.

Black Students Form Individuality

Black Student Union, (B.S.U.) was formed out of the need for the blacks of this school to have individualism.

Throughout the year, this club did certain projects such as their bake sale which was the highlight of the club's year.

B.S.U. is rapidly advancing in the school in its need for individualism and is open to anyone who wants to join.

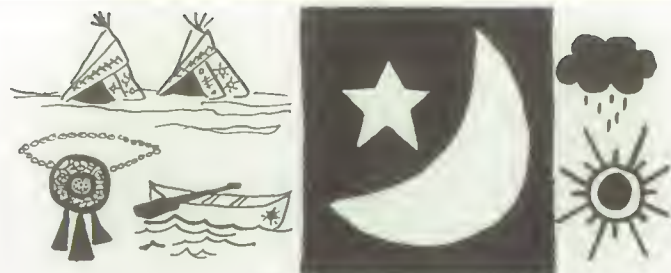

The Odd Squad

Indian Club

The Indian Club, a new organization was created this year. Because of the growing number of Indian students at Lewis and Clark, the students felt that they wanted recognition.

The Indian Club held meetings with specific purposes, such as exchanging of tribal costumes, and other learning experiences. Speakers also talked with the club members.

Working on a volunteer basis the members spent a lot of their own time taping the convocations, classroom plays and school sport events. These were some of the projects of the Audio-Visual Workers.

The sports films were used by the coaches and teams. Members were instructed in the use of L.C.'s television cameras and video-tape recorder.

"Audio-Visual has opened up new fields of interest to me. I feel we could use a color camera, closed circuit television and more and better equipment," stated Bob Beckmann, a member of the group.

This past year stage crew did another outstanding job and worked hard in setting up the mixers in the Field House and the cons in the auditorium.

As a prerequisite to becoming a member of stage crew, interested students must have completed a course in stage crafts. In the course the student is trained in the decoration of sets and coordinating lights and is instructed in the basic methods of preparing stages, including backdrop artistry. Advisor to the stage crew Mr. Lobdell, was very pleased with the success of this stagecrafts class.

The stage crew provided a valuable service to Lewis and Clark and should be commended for doing an excellent job during the past school year.

Sunshine Girls

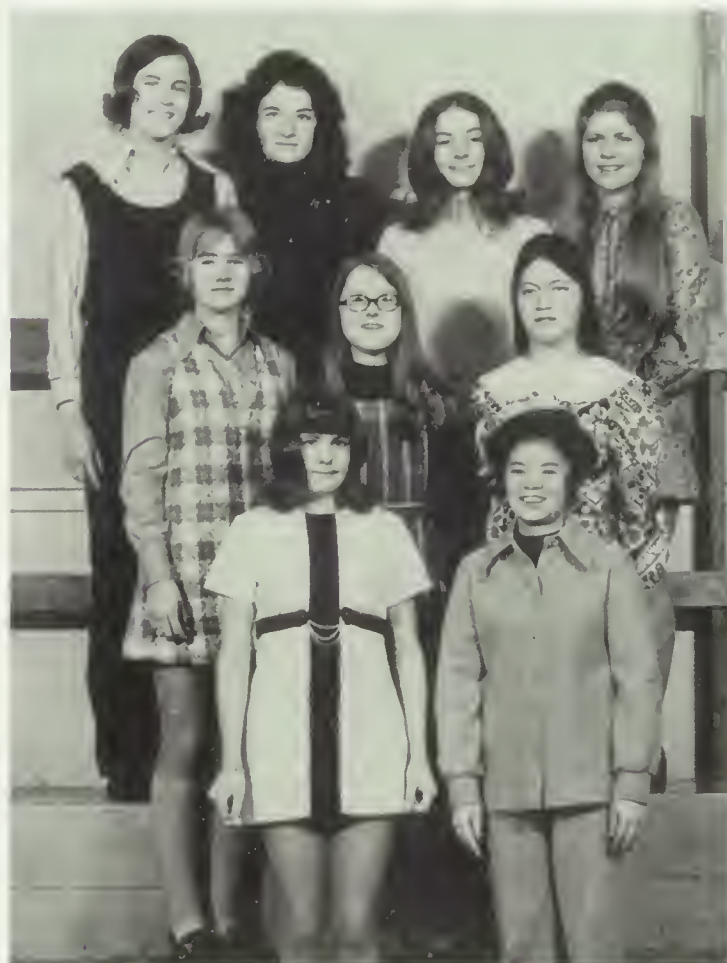

Established to brighten the atmosphere at Lewis and Clark, the Sunshine girls send congratulatory notes to deserving students and get well cards to those students who have been ill for a long time.

Aside from taking an active part in planning the Big and Little Sister party, the sunshine girls post cheerful messages, such as, "Keep on truckin'!"

Hi-Fives

Working closely with the Girls' Federation, the Hi-Fives organized a Big and Little Sister club, for the purpose of making new students feel more at home at Lewis and Clark.

Aside from their assistance in the office, the Hi-Fives presented short skits at the Girls' Federation meetings.

With approximately thirty-five members Orpheus talent club has skills which range from drama through dancing and instruments.

The club has entertained at various nursing homes, churches, the Veteran's Hospital, the Shriners' Hospital and Edgecliff Sanitarium, the city park department and other schools. Each member also performs on an individual basis outside the club. What they might lack in talent they make up for in heart and giving.

This year Orpheus members put on their annual show. It was put on for the students, parents, and teachers which paid tribute to Burt Bacharach. This talent con was held on April 12 after many hours of rehearsal.

One of its Christmas projects was caroling through the many apartment houses tenanted by those on welfare. The members sang at those places where no other groups go.

No other organization in this school contributes more man hours for the entertainment of others than does Orpheus.

My, what big eyes you have!

In Various Dramatic Events

Well, Molly, it looks like the moths really had a field day this winter.

Established to further the talent of students interested in acting, Thespians presented a program to the children at the Shriners Hospital. They also visited the various grade schools in the area and performed children's theatre plays.

With the help of their advisor, Mrs. Carswell, Thespians sponsored the all-school play, "Tom Jones."

Fall semester officers were Barb Brooks, president; Lynette Thomas, vice-president; Pam Reid, secretary; Molly Rice, treasurer.

The spring semester was planned by Molly Rice, president; and Eve Luppert, fifth executive.

Dasidrian, (DAnce, SIng, DRama, musicIAN), the girls' all-city talent club, not only promotes the individual talent of each member but also encourages friendships with girls from other schools.

The club met each Friday to plan such activities as their musical comedy, Frivolities; alumni tea; and philanthropic services.

Frivolities, held in the Lewis and Clark auditorium, marked their fiftieth anniversary.

There are two tryouts a year for any sophomore girl interested in joining.

Girls' Glee

The Choir presented the 21st annual "Festival of Christmas Carols", together with the Glee Club.

During the year three other choral shows were given; the Fall Concert, the March Choral Concert, and the May Concert. The group also sang at the graduation ceremony.

Choir

The Glee Club, LC's girls' choral group, appeared in all four school concerts with the Choir. The group was organized and is under the direction of Gerald Hartley.

Attired in distinguished powder blue robes, the Glee Club is one of the finest singing groups in the Inland Empire.

Tiger Tones

The Tiger Tones, performed for various community organizations as well as school functions.

The highlight performances included the Scottish Rite Dinner held for members and their wives, the Kappa Kappa Gamma Style Show at the Crescent and the Manito Ladies Golf Club luncheon.

The choral group consists of five girls and four boys selected on the basis of excellent singing ability.

Spokane Inter-High Student Senate

Fred Parady, Dave Stanton, Sue Williams, Kathee Coe, and Wally Woodard.

Spokane's Inter-High Student Senate (S.I.S.S.) evolved this year into the single most important and widely publicized community forum for high school students in this city.

S.I.S.S. was actively involved in the controversy over School District 81's married students policy, and was instrumental in liberalizing the policy, which excluded married students from extracurricular activities.

The senate became involved with Expo '74 after Mr. King Cole made a presentation for the fair. S.I.S.S. members probed Mr. Cole for over an hour, and then decided to bring in speakers against Expo. In short, they decided to act as a sort of watchdog over Expo's progress.

Lewis and Clark was deeply involved in the senate. Dave Stanton worked on a major rewrite of the constitution. Fred Parady served as spring semester President, while Kathee Coe was fall semester Secretary. These were the only two offices the senate has so you can see L.C. was a major influence.

In a single year, S.I.S.S. changed from a narrow, school-oriented organization to a council dealing with community projects. If present interest continues, high school students will finally have a voice in Spokane.

Toastmasters

Evergreen Junior Toastmasters was formed to help develop poise and skill in public speaking.

Along this line, the Toasties held their annual mock trial at the Spokane County Courthouse. The trial was an imitation of a real one, only using false evidence and facts. There was a prosecuting attorney and the defendant was a teacher who was put on trial for high misdemeanors.

During the course of the year the Toasties sponsored a liars contest and had two house parties.

Fall semester officers were John Loeffler, president; Scott Smith, vice-president; Joe Thayer, secretary; George Anderson, treasurer; Kerlin Nogle, sgt.-at-arms.

Debaters 61-30 At Midseason

Lewis and Clark's varsity debate team was in contention for first place most of the year, even though they were basically building for the future.

At midseason the varsity was in second place, only two losses out of first, even though the team went through various shakeups in lineup from week to week.

In varsity tournament competition, Fred Parady and Dave Stanton took fourth place at the University of Idaho tournament.

In junior varsity tournaments, Charles Karavitis, Robynn Sleep and Tim Wedlake teamed up to take third place in Richland. After Tim moved up to varsity Charlie and Robynn again teamed up to take third at Gonzaga.

In all competition up to midseason, the team had posted a fine 61-30 win-loss record.

In individual events, Bill Graham and Mary Malloy took second and third, respectively, at Richland in Expository speaking.

Mary Malloy, Fred Parady and Robynn Sleep frequently attained first-speaker rankings.

This year's resolution was Resolved: That the jury system in the United States should be significantly changed.

With a nucleus of junior debaters, the team is looking forward to next year.

Forum Club's main activity was to further increase intellectual discussion of current events among the students here at L.C. For example, at one meeting last fall Mr. Ron Miller, head of the history department, came and spoke about the problems in the Middle East. Mr. Miller had traveled extensively throughout the area.

The club was planning to concentrate on new topics as they came up in the news for the spring semester. The fall semester president was Bill Heylman, and Dale Pattison served in that capacity for the spring semester.

Oh, Freddie; I'll bet you say that to all the girls!

Senate

The chief aim of Senate has been the learning of parliamentary procedures and better public speaking. To become eligible to be in the club, a person must have his name submitted by a club member. The applicant then must speak before the club's officers, who judge and criticize his speaking abilities.

Senate annually holds a mock trial, complete with judge and jury, a party at Christmas, and a picnic in the spring. Bill Long was president of Senate this year, and the advisor was Mr. William Hamilton.

Papyrus

The school's oldest club, Papyrus, is a writing club. Its purpose is to create a better understanding between the writer and what he writes. This is done as a group at the club's frequent meetings.

At these meetings the members read aloud their own works, and the others offered criticism and advice on how the person could improve his styles or skills or compliments on the talent that he had shown.

"The main function of Papyrus is to get together and have fun with writing," explained A.F. Rice, the club's spring semester president. Kathy Christman was the fall semester president, and Mrs. Alda Howard was the advisor.

Editors Try New Format

The Lewis and Clark Journal is more than just a paper for the students of the school, it also provides them with an opportunity to work on a newspaper and learn from their own mistakes.

Beginning the year with approximately 34 students, the Journal offered the base for learning the fundamentals of journalism through getting ads for the issues, writing notes and fillers, laying out various pages, and finally being able to write that first story in which their first by-line appears.

Mushroom

The Mushroom was an organization that grew out of an idea to form a completely adversive paper for the students dealing mostly with actions about the school, city, and world in general. Starting with Mike Pryor as editor, the paper began to take shape when a general format was laid down for each issue. Later, John Agnew took over the Mushroom creating an even stronger impact upon the readers until, finally at the end of the first semester, the Mushroom separated from the Journal to become its own publication.

It now consists of ten regular staff members and many free-lance writers and takes its place beside the Journal as the school's second worthwhile publication.

Teaching students to become dependable businessmen and women is the purpose of Deca, the Distributive Education Club of America.

This year Deca has participated in luncheons with Deca clubs from various schools in the area for the purpose of learning from featured speakers.

Other activities have been a yearlong class ring sale that is used to bring capital into the club and provide the members with selling experience. A candy sale was held to raise money to send Julie Osmund to the governors conference to participate in state elections.

Spring activities planned for Deca included The Career Development Conference in Yakima, with five students attending.

Fall semester officers were Steve Bostwick, president; Debbie Spaulding, vice president; Peggy Beckley, secretary; Dan Oaksford, treasurer; Toni Admire, Historian; and Dave Raney, parliamentarian.

I'll take the "Captain Kangaroo" special with the secret decoder, spy glass, and missile launcher.

Founded in 1961 and beginning its eleventh year, the Architectural Club, under the direction of Mr. Leo Weed, was established to further the talents of students interested in architectural design.

"Expo 74" and the river front beautification project were the center of attention of this club. Mr. Warren Heylman, the architect of the Parkade Plaza, presented a program on the future of downtown Spokane. Traffic engineer, Mr. Steel, talked to the members of the club on the subject of the North-South freeway and the problems concerning traffic flow during "Expo 74". Mr. Tom Moser and Mr. Wayne Crouch, both of the City Planning Commission Staff showed slides and had discussions on "Expo 74" and the river beautification project. The fall president of Architectural Club was Dave Spangler.

The Cooperative Office Occupation (CO-OP) Club was in its second year and was headed by Mrs. Thurley Pack. The club consisted of 15 girls who met everyday during first period to discuss good business techniques. All the girls worked part time after school, most of whose jobs were in the business field.

During the year they had such activities as early morning breakfasts, magazine subscription, and doughnut sales, and parties. In the spring the girls held a luncheon in which they invited their bosses to attend.

The Future Teachers of America Club gives practical experience in teaching, and informs the students of the opportunities in education. The club started the year by visiting the Cheney College School on the E.W.S.C. campus.

A 50 dollar scholarship was awarded to a senior going into the field of education. The money was raised through their taffy sale. Other activities throughout the year included mini lessons and visits to the Regional FTA meetings.

Officers for the fall semester were Barb Hein, president and Leslie Iwai, secretary-treasurer.

Math Club

Formed to promote interest in math, this club has dedicated itself this year to establishing a math library for Lewis and Clark. Other projects of Math Club were furnishing the trophies for the winners of their spring math contest and planning its annual Christmas party and math science picnic.

Mr. Higel, advisor, helped to acquire speakers from the surrounding community to make monthly meetings more enlightening.

Fall semester officers were Dave Nelson, president; Lee Boling, vice-president; Steph White, secretary; Scott Smith, treasurer; and Nancy Gibb, 5th exec. Spring semester officers were Dale Pattison, president; Ed Hunter, vice-president; Judy Kelley, secretary; Rick Martin, treasurer, and Steph White, 5th exec.

"The goal of Tri-Sci is to promote student interest in science activities," said member Charles Karavitis.

Tri-Sci combined this year with Math Club in a volleyball game and a semester party in January. They also viewed many films on the subjects of ecology and environment.

A field trip to EWSC was planned for the spring festivities, coupled with nature walks.

Fall and spring semester officers were as follows. president; Lee Boling and Ed Hunter, vice-president; Linda Levitch and Silas Guthrie, with this office being combined with treasurer, secretary; Sally Weis and Judith Kelley, sgt-at-arms; Ed Hunter and Charles Karavitis.

As the CLASS OF 1972 leaves Lewis and Clark I hope each of you realize the value of your education. This age will open many doors never opened before.

The great challenge which confronts you is to be prepared to enter these opening doors. Our hope is that we have prepared you to accept this challenge.

Good Luck and God's Speed!

Dear Mrs. Keigley
Gifts
Last year I really had the feeling that you cared, and that you liked me. I really like it when people keep saying that I can do it, and help me in any way I can. I give me incentive, I guess. This year I think you must have like me much more than you did or you would not mind for me.
Love,
Kathy
